

How to check if you've opted into a promotion Golden Nugget Online Casino

[jazz music playing]

If you think you've taken advantage of one of our promotions by opting in, you can double check your opt in status in a few locations.

First, check the bell notifications icon.

When you opt into promotions you'll receive a confirmation notification here.

If you've enabled email notifications in your app settings, you may also receive an email notification.

Finally, when you visit Rewards, then Promos you'll see the Opted In status on any of the promotions you're currently participating in.

Now, you can check out your opt in status and get playing!
